Up to three awards are offered per year in this category.

The list of past recipients can be found at https://www.utsc.utoronto.ca/ctl/utsc-teaching-awards.

This award has been established for CUPE Unit 3 Sessional Lecturers with experience at UTSC. To be eligible, the nominee must have taught at least two courses in two different academic years at UTSC and have taught at least one course in the current academic year (Summer, Fall, Winter).

An individual can win this award only once.

The award is intended to recognize

The Selection Committee looks for evidence of:

in courses at UTSC.

- a. Demonstrate commitment to inclusive excellence in teaching and learning
- b. Courses designed with explicit learning outcomes
- c. Effective learning activities and assessments
- d. Supportive learning environments
- e. Outstanding stuMOD 48Leate 0a@1ETQBn0 g2nE/F3 12 giE/Fi@1ETQBn0 g2nE/F3 12 giE/Fi@1ETQBn0

what specifically does the nominee do to improve the student experience assessment but does little to help the committee distinguish between nominations.

e.

etc.) for the past two years should be provided in list or table form. The summary should indicate:

the course code and name enrollment numbers course level (undergraduate/graduate).

f. Evidence of Outstanding Classroom Teaching (this part of the nomination dossier must not exceed 35 pages)

(written by the nominee) and the evidence of teaching excellence. While many dossiers will take a fully narrative approach, candidates may include artistic, audio or other materials and formats reflective of their pedagogical practice supplemented by a brief narrative.

1.

teaching approach and provides specific examples of pedagogical techniques employed. The statement should consider the rationale for adopting these provide a reflection on and/or assessment of the effectiveness of these approaches and strategies.

- 2. Course syllabi (with explicit learning outcomes) for all courses taught at UTSC in the relevant two-year period.
- 3. Representative samples, provided by the nominee, of course learning activities and assessments that promote and assess learning

A lesson plan (a one-

a whole. The committee is also intentional in its deliberations in recognizing the limitations of course evaluations as a primary measure of teaching effectiveness.

The deadline for submission of nominations is

The complete nomination package must be combined into email attachment to utscteachingawards@utsc.utoronto.ca.

and sent as an

Questions regarding the process