to very general subjects, which are likely to be of interest to the entire class, should be posted on the Blackboard (Discussion Board module) so that the entire class may benefit from the answer. All students should check the Discussion Board module of Blackboard at least weekly and please do check the Discussion Board to see if your question is already answered; oftentimes this is the case. Think of Discussion Board as an ever

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Please arrive promptly for lecture and do not forget to turn off cell phones. I am fine with you annotating notes directly on your laptops, however, I will under no circumstances tolerate other uses of your computers during lecture (like students laughing over a funny YouTube clip or checking Facebook). You are fully expected to abide by the Code of Student Conduct as set out by The Governing Council at the University of Toronto (<http://www.utoronto.ca/govcncl/pap/policies/studentc.html>). This document defines the standards by which students are to conduct themselves within class and within the University community at large. Please be advised that misconduct of any form will not be tolerated in this class. This includes plagiarism on tests, assignments, and exams, which will be strictly enforced and is easily detected.
