Quizzes will occur near the end of each lecture. Each quiz will cover the materials from the same day lecture. If you miss a quiz, there is no make up and you will miss out a participation opportunity. It is very important that you attend each lecture to write the quiz at the end of the lecture. Out of class opportunities will also be available, to a maximum of 10 marks

Midterm

October 23 (tentative) in class time and place (additional room) to be announced
I expect all students to write the midterm exams except under the most severe and exceptional circumstances. I will not accept having a cold, a stomach ache, or headache, or something of that sort as a valid reason for not writing any midterm.

If, for some extraordinary reason, you do miss a midterm, please notify me ~~24 hours~~ of the exam in person or by email. A ~~no~~-vague note from a doctor will be required the U of T medical form.

Midterm and Final exam format

Same format for both exams, only differing in quantity (subject to change depending on the course materials)

1. Section one: Who is who (or, fill in the blank)
2. Section two: True or false questions and multiple choice questions
3. Section three: Short answer questions
4. Section four: A Summary/Essay

How to study for the exams

You must study the lecture notes (will be posted after BT 1 0 0813(-)-15-19(n)10(o 0 Tc[(S)6(u,
