Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is one of the cornerstones of the University of Toronto. It is critically important both to maintain our community which honours the values of honesty, trust, respect, fairness and responsibility and to protect you, the students within this community, and the value of the degree towards which you are all working so diligently. Detailed information about how to act with academic integrity, the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters, and the processes by which allegations of academic misconduct are resolved can be found online: http://www.artsci.utoronto.ca/osai/students

According to Section B of the University of Toronto's Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters (http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaveac. htm) which all students are expected to know and respect, it is an o ence for students to:

To use someone else's ideas or words in their own work without acknowledging that those ideas/words are not their own with a citation and quotation marks, i.e. to commit plagiarism.

To include false, misleading or concocted citations in their work.

To obtain unauthorized assistance on any assignment.

To provide unauthorized assistance to another student. This includes showing another student completed work.

To submit their own work for credit in more than one course without the permission of the instructor.

To falsify or alter any documentation required by the University. This includes, but is not limited to, doctor's notes.

To use or possess an unauthorized aid in any quiz or exam.

Speci clly to this course, please be reminded that you need to understand every solution that you submit. If you work together on an assignment, you still have to be able to present your submission.

There are other o ences covered under the Code, but these are by far the most common. Please respect these rules and the values which they protect. O ences against academic integrity will be dealt with according to the procedures outlined in the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters.
