

GD-PCS Policy: Borrowing Psychological Tests

Please Note:

course is delegated to the course instructor, who is a Registered Psychologist.

1. Request the test(s) using the following form: <https://utsc.library.utoronto.ca/library-help>
2. Select "Borrowing and Returning" as the Subject and put in as much information about the test(s) as possible into the question field.
3. Turnaround will be 24-48 hours and the student will receive an email from the library when the test is ready for pickup.
4. Students are required to present their T-card at check-out.
5. Record forms must be returned to the library whether they have been filled in or not. Library staff will ensure that completed record forms undergo secure shredding.

Students Seeking to Borrow Tests for Other Educational Purposes

Students not enrolled in CPS1701H or CPS1702H are permitted to borrow psychological tests exclusively for other educational purposes, such as learning a test for a practicum placement or a research study (e.g., Master's thesis or dissertation project). In these cases, students are required to seek pre-approval
